Art Unit: 1731

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-4 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Ogawa et al. (4,559,193).

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

5. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ogawa et al. (4,559,193) in view of Bonzo (4,557,773) for the reasons as set forth in the previous office action.

6. Applicant's arguments filed 9/24/03 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

With respect to the rejection of the claims under 35 USC 102(b) applicants argue:

The rejection of claims 1 to 4 and 6 under 35 USC 102 as anticipated by Ogawa et al. '193, if applied to the claims as amended, is respectfully traversed. Claim 1 has been revised to specify that the sealing slurry is filled into the cells through the holes pierced in the mask a quantity sufficient to seal the filled cells." The specification and the drawings clearly provide support for this additional feature of the invention.

In contrast, Ogawa et al. '193 clearly teaches the use of two different materials to seal the filled cells. See the discussion in the patent column 5 as well as patent claims and The Ogawa et al. '193 method requires dipping an end surface of a ceramic honeycomb structural body having a film attached thereto into a sealing slurry mixture, then "subsequently passing a kneaded pasty sealing material green body into the ends of the channels which have slurry adhering to" and firing the body, "whereby said adhered slurry and said kneaded pasty material seal the selected channels." (The quotes are taken from patent claim 1 in column 9.)

See also patent Figs. 7 and 8 and the related discussion. The instant claims patentably define over the reference method.

This argument is not persuasive. The examiner agrees with applicants' characterization of the disclosure. Note however, Ogawa et al. also discloses a process as claimed wherein only one material is introduced in to the channels. This process is described in the part of the disclosure describing the prior art. See e.g. col. 2, lines 1-10.

With respect to the rejection of the claims under 35 USC 103 applicants argue:

The rejection of claim 5 under 35 USC 103 as unpatentable over Ogawa et al. '193 in view of Bonzo '773 is also respectfully traversed. The secondary reference is cited to show the use of an image processing process to detect cell positions. The reference, however, overcomes none of the deficiencies of Ogawa et al. 5193 discussed above and the rejection should be withdrawn as well.

Art Unit: 1731

This argument is not persuasive for the reasons as set forth above.

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
